

GRN UK Summer Update

GRN UK Australia Trip 2014

Joan and I travelled to our GRN Centre in Sydney on the 4th June, where we were asked to help at a recordist training course for 4 weeks. This was a great blessing and privilege for us to do. We really enjoyed meeting the trainees, Ronnie & Chandra from Indonesia and Lot from our office in

It was a great blessing to meet up with and work together with other recordists from around the world.

Thailand. It was a blessing to be around these guys, who have all done lots of recordings and were there for further training. It was great to meet up with Noel and his training team and be a small part of it all. I also appreciated learning many new things about our recording and editing processes.

For Joan and I to be back in Australia again was very special and we stayed with Joan's brother Dallas and his family while there. Dallas let me borrow his car every day to travel back and forth to the studios in the office.

Christine, the CEO of the Sydney centre and her team really welcomed and spoiled us with their wonderful Ozzie hospitality. We are very grateful to all those who blessed us so much while we were there.

To see their new office complex and recording studios was very exciting and also to meet many old and new staff members and volunteers was great.

The trip was also a great refresher course for me.

“Millions are still waiting to hear and may not have any other way of knowing about the Saviour who loves them.”

The main objective of training our recordists to a high standard is to have professional recordings made and distributed around the world in all these different languages. Millions are still waiting to hear and may not have any other way of knowing about the Saviour who loves them. As technology moves on, GRN are at the cutting edge and we use every means to get the “Good News” out in thousands of languages. Thank you so much for supporting our work around the world.

We arrived home safe and well and tired, but loved every minute of our adventure to Australia.

We Praise The Lord for this great opportunity and experience. God Bless you.
